

MICROENERGY
CONSULT

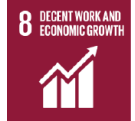

South-East Asia

Cambodia

Project Description:

The consortium was commissioned to assist the Microfinance Institution PRASAC Microfinance, on behalf of its funder GCPF, in enhancing existing and improving its offers in the renewable energy and energy efficiency sector.

Introduction & Enhancement of RE and EE Lending

Services

Technical Assistance,
Training & Capacity
Development

Topics

Clean Energy Finance,
Climate Change Adaptation
& Mitigation

Date

November 2016 –
March 2017

Partners

ACCESS Advisory

Clients

Global Climate Partnership
Fund (GCPF),
PRASAC Microfinance

Beneficiaries

PRASAC Microfinance

Services Provided:

- Institutional analysis of PRASAC and the establishment and guidance of a RE/EE lending steering committee
- Supply and demand assessment of the overall Cambodian clean energy market and the MFI client market in particular
- Strategy and business model development, including RE/EE financing potentials, risk analysis as well as marketing overview
- Guidance on financial product development, supply chain and facilitation of agreements embedded in a wider action plan
- Training and coordination of internal knowledge dissemination structures for long-term retention of expertise.

Energy technologies & energy uses:

Solar

Productive
Use

Energy
Efficiency

Contact: consulting.projects@microenergy-international.com